The Science of Health!

Every Man his own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

—AND—

Holloway's Ointment.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The stomach is the great center which influences the health or disease of the system—abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, etc. The bowels sympathize by costiveness, diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent. To these the Ointment is especially antagonistic; its modus operandi is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions of the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood, or chronic diseases, are eradicated and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints,

Whether in the young or old, married or single at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation. They are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn diseases is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bunions, burns, chapped hands, chilblains, fistula, gout, lumbago, mercurial eruptions, piles, rheumatism, ringworm, salt-rheum, scalds, skin diseases, swelled glands, sore legs, sore breasts, sore heads, sore throats, sores of all kinds, sprains, stiff joints, tetter, ulcers, venereal sores and wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—See that the words "Holloway, New York and London," appear as a watermark on every leaf of the book of directions which enfolds each box or pot. No others are genuine. A handsome reward given for information leading to the detection of counterfeiters of the medicines and venders of the deceptive articles, knowing them to be such. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, and by druggists and medicine dealers throughout the world. A great saving by taking the large sizes. Full instructions with every box or pot. f6-1y

The Golden Side.

There is many a rose in the road of life,
If we would only stop to take it;
And many a tone from the better land,
If the querulous heart would make it;
To the sunny soul that is full of hope,
And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,
The grass is green and the flowers are bright,
Though the winter storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,
And to keep the eyes still lifted;
For the sweet blue sky will still peep through
When the ominous clouds are rifted!
There never was a night without a day,
Or an evening without a morning;
And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jeweled crown,
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayers to Heaven,
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

THE ISSUE.—The main national issue before the people this fall will be the acceptance of the Chinese-negro Amendment to the Constitution. The people of California are more deeply interested in this question than those of any other State. Negro suffrage is already enforced upon the South, and whether the amendment passes or not, the probability is that it will continue until "the laws of nature and of nature's God" shall solve the problem by wiping out the black man. This result must follow, just so sure as the rushing torrent will wear away the yielding earth. As the red men, the buffaloes, and the wolves disappeared from the face of the country inhabited by our forefathers, so will the negroes, placed outside of the protecting control of the whites, gradually melt and disappear before the crushing tread of the great Caucasian armies that are pouring in upon us from Europe, and which are rapidly increasing upon our own soil. Before the war the percentage of natural increase of the negroes was greater than that of the whites in the Northern States. Since the war their decrease is marked and decided, and the next census will tell a tale that will be a shocking commentary on the absurd and moon-struck theories of the fanatics who would convert a negro into a white man. Their extinction is only a matter of time.

But with us the case is different. We have a different element among us which is constantly on the increase. We have thousands of Chinamen to which other thousands are being added monthly, and to which millions can be added without their loss being felt in the teeming and inexhaustible hive which produces them. The question comes up, will our people vote for an amendment which takes away from the State all control over suffrage with this element in their population? Will they place it in the power of Congress to declare, by a single dash of the pen, that Chinamen shall vote? Let them remember that, when the Fifteenth Amendment was under discussion before Congress, Senator Corbett, of Oregon, proposed the following addition to the first section: "But Chinamen not born in the United States, and Indians not taxed, shall not be deemed or made citizens." This amendment was voted down. Let it also be remembered that our Representative, Mr Johnson, asked leave to introduce into the House a resolution declaring that Congress did not intend by the Fifteenth Amendment to favor or enforce Chinese suffrage. This was also voted down unceremoniously. This amendment, taken in connection with all Radical teachings for the past six years, means Chinese suffrage—nothing more nor less. It remains to be seen if our people can be entrapped into its endorsement, just as the people of the Northern States were into that of negro suffrage.—Examiner.

WHAT are the issues now? Free white government against mongrel despotism; State Sovereignty against consolidation of power; the Constitution of liberty and good government against the amendments of negro fanaticism and partisan hatred; the gold and silver of Democracy against radical rags called bonds and greenbacks; free trade against plundering tariffs; low taxes against enormous taxation, and equal taxation against bondholding exemption; economy against extravagance; honesty against venality; virtue against vice. These are the issues presented to the people, and let no man say it matters not which party triumphs. The success of the one is the life and freedom and happiness of the white race in America; the victory of the other is the triumph of shame and oppression, mongrelism and corruption, decay and death.—Sonoma Dem.

MUCH has been written—many brilliant things have been said—enough to immortalize the many authors; but a splice will have to be put upon the pinnacle of fame to give place to Goldrick's name. He is the editor of the Rocky Mountain Herald, combs back his hair, closes his eyes and apostrophizes the completion of the great railroad thus:

"O, now, farewell forever the dusty roads, the alkali, farewell! Farewell the horned bull and the big trains that made ambition virtue. O, farewell! Farewell the faithful steer and red wagons; the whoa-haws, the ear-piercing oaths, the royal swearing, and all quality, pride, pomp, and circumstance of emigratiog. And O, you mortal bull-whips, whose rude cracks the immortal Jove's dread clamors counterfeit, farewell! The teamster's occupation's gone?"

A NOTABLE COINCIDENCE.—Andrew Johnson, in his speech at Greenville, referring to the tyranny of the Radical majority in Congress, said: "The people had better have a prince or king over them than an arbitrary body enacting laws and numerous measures so unwarranted and terrible in character." Senator Sprague was at the very same time making a speech in the United States Senate, on the same subject. He used this language: "If I have to subject myself to any tyranny, I prefer the tyranny of one man with some humanity in him, and occupying a responsible position to that of an irresponsible body like the Senate."

FAST TIME.—Six days, seventeen hours and twenty-eight minutes from New York is the fastest time yet made by a passenger. At the same time a gentleman arrived from Paris in eighteen days.

Eloquent Speech.

At the celebration of Jefferson's birthday, held in San Francisco, a few weeks ago, Dr. Shorb, of that city, made the following brief but eloquent remarks in response to the toast of "The States and the Union:"

Upward rolls the curtain to-night which nearly one century ago fell on the consummation of the hopes of the founders of this republic. In the bloody drama of the revolution, from which, baptized in blood, tempered and chastened by trial and affliction, the primitive colonies rose to freedom and to power, memory gazes with unobstructed vision upon two central commanding forms. There are other noble actors, too, on the stage; but move, as it were, in the shadow cast from these colossal figures. Out of the misty past they loom, like volcanic mountains at sea, magnificent and sublime—broad-based in the gratitude of the hearts of the brave and free American people—everlasting as the heavens to which they lift their heads. The sword of one and the pen of the other worked the startling miracle of the acquisition of our liberty. We celebrate the birthday of one on the 22d day of February—we celebrate the other to-night with most affectionate remembrance. Washington and Jefferson! As long as America survives and civilization bids history to keep a record of famous men and famous deeds, their names will live on, gathering lustre with the lapse of time, until the destiny of this planet is thoroughly consummated. They lived to see the country—the cradle of whose liberty they rocked—go rushing through the century with a grandeur and a progress never before or since equalled in the history of the world, and died in the full fruition of their patriotic hopes, crowned with imperishable honor.

As with honest pride we survey the constellation of truly great and noble men, whose intellectual triumphs astonished the old world of Europe and placed America in the van of the nations of the earth, few names can be found shining with more enduring brilliancy than his, whose life is so closely united with the sentiment to which it is my proud privilege to respond to-night. Indissolubly connected with the doctrine of the sovereignty of the States, are the name and fame, the genius and the eloquence of John C. Calhoun.

Taylor, of Virginia, and Calhoun of South Carolina, were the earnest and inspired defenders of a pure political faith, for which so many thousands of the noblest sons of the South fought, bled and died, martyrs to liberty. Recognizing the fact that these States were sovereign in the beginning—that to the general Government, for the common weal, they ceded a portion of their rights, reserving others, any innovation upon which they solemnly declared would absolve them from all obligations to preserve the confederation,—Calhoun, inspired by the spirit of prophecy, sent out his burning messages to the Southern people, charging them first to protect their liberty and then the Union—that liberty was above and beyond all other considerations, and that the Union without it was a fraud and a curse, greater than which even a vindictive God could not devise. The war has decided against his doctrine, but we may well imagine how his sentient and honored dust must shiver in its hallowed sepulchre, when the spirit which once animated it beholds the land whose liberty he would have died to save, accepting with dumb endurance the argument that the sword has settled the sovereignty of the States. The sword settles but one question—that of superior force or power—and they who claim for it more comprehensive arbitration, are tyrants, fanatics and fools.

Go ask Poland or Hungary—go ask Ireland—ask any land which once was free, now lying prostrate and groaning beneath the iron-shod heel of tyranny and despotism—go ask the God of eternal justice himself whether the sword is an unerring arbiter in the settlement of rights, and you will hear coming up from devastated provinces, ruined homes and violated sanctuaries—aye, even from the temple of the Most High itself—an awful, solemn denial of this most infamous doctrine.

Sometime in the future, the wisdom or the error of Calhoun's political faith will be made manifest; but in that day we believe as firmly as we believe in the ultimate performance of the justice of Almighty God, that he will stand as high above the brood of insect statesman who have sprung into life and visibility from the bloody scum of the late revolution, and who now seek to blacken his memory, as the heavens are above the earth—vindicated by history, with a name and a fame as spotless as the sun!

VILLAGE KING IN HUNGARY.—Hungary, where long border wars with Turkey gave constant exercise to the courage, skill and address of the young men, personal valor and physical strength are still, especially in the southeastern parts, the titles to public esteem. Games that recall, in spirit, the Olympic games of Greece, are still held, to test the prowess of the young men, and decide on the champion. Whit-Monday is the national day, and then the whole village, led by a band of gipsy musicians, proceed to the ground. The first test is a horse-race, in which the object is to wrest from the hands of a mounted standard-bearer the flag that he holds. The distance to be run is about a mile and a half, and the successful rider must either distance all the rest, so as to capture it before they come up, or, as more frequently happens, use all his skill and address to thwart others who are close upon him, so as to bear off the prize, watchful even in his struggle that others do not dash up and outwit him. The successful champion is then put to another test, requiring still greater strength and valor. This is to catch a wild bull, selected for the purpose, without any aid or help, and bring it, bound and obedient, to the village. This is a dangerous feat, often ending in the defeat of the aspirant. If he succeeds, he enters the village in triumph, attended by his less fortunate competitors, and is declared King of the Village for the ensuing year. His prerogative is not empty. He can run up a bill at the inn, during his reign, at the expense of the village, and he begins by a ball, to which all are invited, and dance and song and merriment run riot as the wine flows freely. Thus is the king enthroned by his new subjects.

14th and 15th Amendments.

As the Radical hatred to the Constitution of our fathers has progressed so far as to leave but little of the original unchanged, we publish the 14th amendment, as already declared to have been adopted, and the 15th as proposed for adoption:

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abride the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of its laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States; or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crimes, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or give aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties or services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

Be it enacted, etc., (two-thirds of both Houses concurring.) That the following amendment to the Constitution of the United States be submitted to the Legislatures of the several States, and when ratified by three-fourths thereof, it shall be a part of said Constitution:

Article 15. The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied by the United States, nor any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 6. That Congress shall have power to enforce this provision by appropriate legislation.

A. BURR'S DAUGHTER.—Theodosia Burr's habits of life were, I have heard my mother say, much like those of Mrs. Kemble. She was a famous walker and skater, and accompanied her father on shooting and fishing excursions. As a horse-woman she was unsurpassed, and, on her visits to her New England friends, sometimes astonished their quiet neighbors by riding over the country, taking walls and ditches in flying leaps. Yet she was, in the best sense of the word, feminine and essentially a lady.

The last days of this great woman were very sad, and her fate is even yet wrapped in the most awful obscurity. It is only known that when broken in health and almost in haart, she embarked from Charleston to visit her unhappy father in New York, on a small sailing vessel, accompanied by her physician and servant. That vessel was never heard of more, and it has always been supposed that it foundered off Cape Hatteras. But some twenty-five or thirty years ago, a seaman dying in a hospital at New Orleans, confessed to having been a pirate, and among other terrible things, he told of his ship having run down a schooner bound to New York from Charleston, and having scuttled her, after taking possession of everything valuable. The few passengers, he said, and such of the crew as were disinclined to enlist under their black banner, they compelled to walk the plank. Among the passengers was one lady who remonstrated against having her hands bound and blindfolded, and promised to offer no resistance. So they let her have her way, he said; and she stepped quickly on to the plank, and with her eyes wide open, walked off into the sea. I have always believed that the lady who met her fate in this grand Roman way, was the daughter of Aaron Burr, Theodosia Allston.

THE following guide for whiskey-drinkers is furnished by the Truckee Tribune:

Truckee—Three drinks will get up a fight; four kill. Wadsworth—Three will kill. Elko—One drink knocks them. Promontory Point—The smell is sure death. Parties intending to travel will do well to cut this out.

LIKE A YANKEE TRICK.—Grant's cousin, Silas Hudson, of Iowa, appointed as a $7,500 minister to Guatemala, and who, it seems, is really a Democrat, it is asserted slipped through the Senate, without encountering the fire of Sumner & Co., by having himself represented as a colored negro.

WITH reference to the child with no backbone, who is reported to have recently died in Ohio, the Boston Post says that by his death "the State lost admirable material for a member of Congress."

THE WHEAT MARKET.—In New York, on the 2d instant, wheat was selling at $1 60@$1 70, inside figure for inferior.

At San Francisco, on the 2d, wheat sold at $1 45@$1 65. Barley, $1 15@$1 50.

CUTS US.—Goodwin, of the Solano Sentinel, refuses to exchange with us because we applied to him a merited castigation. We said Goodwin lacked brains, and by this childish conduct he has given the strongest proof he could have given of the fact. We both edit the only Democratic papers in this Senatorial District, and it will require the utmost union and harmony among Democrats to be successful, yet, before we had written a line, he assaulted us, and because we dressed him down for his imprudence, he withholds his paper from us, thus closing the avenue through which we could receive intelligence of the action of the Democracy of his county and preventing us from seconding that action promptly. Does his conduct look Democratic? Here is what Alex. Montgomery, the incorruptible, says of the repentant rebel in a glorious cause:

A HARD RAP.—The editor of the Solano Sentinel is earning no laurels by his political course and war upon Democratic soldiers of the "Old Guard." On the contrary, he is arousing the enmity of those who would like to be his friends, and receiving the congratulatory, hypocritical smiles of those who aim to use him. Solano county should be redeemed from Radical sway this fall, and with Yolo elect a Democratic Senator. For the Sentinel to open its batteries on the DEMOCRAT, seems a very poor way to bring about such a result, but is an absolute strike on the side of the Radicals. Whether Mr. Goodwin fancies himself a political Goliah, embodying so much strength and greatness that he can force the entire Democracy of the State to abandon its ancient ways and follow his solitary dictation, we know not, but we do know, that if he has such an erroneous idea, L. P. Hall is the very man to give him healthful exercise against such insanity.

WARNS HIS PARTY.—Marcus D. Boruck, of the sporting paper in San Francisco, gives the subjoined warning to his party. The Republicans cannot evade the suffrage question. The party at Washington, and in all the States, knowing that they would be forever doomed to defeat and dispersion without the aid of negroes and other outside barbarians, have fully committed themselves on this question—have made it the issue before the people—and the Republicans in California must sustain it or quit the party:

If the Republican party of this State endeavors to carry the weight of the Fifteenth Amendment in the coming contest, it will be buried so deep in September that it cannot be resurrected and galvanized into the semblance of life in October. If our County Convention adopts a resolution in opposition to the amendment, we will certainly elect our whole ticket; but if it favors or ignores it, we shall not have the ghost of a chance to be successful in a single instance.

VACAVILLE RAILROAD.—On Monday last the work of laying the track on this road was commenced, and will be prosecuted to an early completion. The road will be only six miles in length. A grand ball will be given at each end—at Vacaville and Vacca Station—when it is finished—passage on all the roads free. Woodland will be represented.

GNATS.—Our friend Kalbaugh, who is always right, recommends the following as a preventative of bites from gnats, mosquitoes, and all other insects: Prepare a tincture by macerating one part of pyrethrum roseum in four parts of diluted alcohol, when diluted with ten times its bulk of water, and anoint with it. It is a perfect immunity.

DIED OF JOY.—A young man of Marysville, who had long been sick in the hospital there, and was constantly wishing for money to enable him to reach his parents in New York, died from the communication to him, without previous preparation, of the fact that his father had sent him $300.

Candid Confession.

The Oakland Transcript, one of the leading organs of the Republican party in this State, contains the following in one of its leading editorials:

"State Rights we utterly repudiate. We deny that States have any rights."

This is the Republican creed, stated in as few words as the English language will admit of. The editor, whoever he may be, should be locked up as a lunatic, or treated as an enemy of every man, woman and child in California. What are the rights of the States but the rights of the people inhabiting them? Those rights are entrusted by those inhabitants to the Governments of the States, instituted by themselves, to be exercised for their protection and benefit. Take away those rights and confer them upon the Federal Government, and what is the result? The people of the States are shorn of all rights, except such as a few hundred individuals at Washington, exposed to every temptation to abuse their powers, and knowing nothing and caring less for the wants of the people of the State, will allow them to exercise. It is astounding to human sense and reason how many bearded men, boasting of being freemen, do not comprehend these simple truths, upon which hang the lives, liberty, property, and hopes of happiness of themselves and their families! Right here in Woodland, we have been told by Democrats that it would not do to say anything about State Rights, for there were men belonging to the party who would be frightened from it if we did so. Now, our reply to all such talk as this, is: Send into town all such human curiosities, and we will go before the Board of Supervisors and petition them for an appropriation for their support, for the time being—we will purchase each one a bag of marbles and a top, and, after obtaining their confidence and letting them know we do not intend to hurt them, we will teach them as little children are taught, by a mode of illustration adapted to their comprehension, until we get the idea into their heads that State Rights mean only their own rights, the right to govern themselves, through their neighbors and friends, instead of being governed by strangers, thousands of miles distant, who know nothing of their wants, and who have an interest in deceiving them, and who are surrounded by every temptation to abuse their powers, that they may riot in ill-gotten gains, at the expense of the poor simpletons, the people, who found their rights such a burthen to them that they cast them away. We do not think the course of tuition would be long to teach them this much, and make them understand, respect, and conserve their own rights, as citizens of a free State. The word Democracy is derived from demo, the people, and krateo, to possess, to govern, and means government by the people. How can the people of a State be free and govern themselves if they permit a few hundred corrupt and wicked individuals to rob them of the rights which they have entrusted to their State governments? Whenever a man ceases to be bold and courageous, and is afraid to look any mortal in the eye and say, I am a freeman of a free and sovereign State, he ceases to be a Democrat, and has no more right to the proud title than a negro has to the appellation of white man.

A HUGE RADICAL SWINDLE.—The rapid strides we are making towards despotism are being demonstrated every day. War creates a necessity for taxation, and an opportunity for sharpers and scoundrels to swindle the government, all of which has to be paid by the producers of the country. If war with England could only be made to grow out of the following dispatch from Washington, a pretext would exist for making the present standing army perpetual, and increasing its numbers fourfold:

A proposition for the relief of the American sufferers by the depredations of the Alabama and other Anglo-Confederate privateers, is now receiving the careful consideration of the President, members of the Cabinet and leading Congressmen. It involves the passage of a law, at the commencement of the session of Congress in December next authorizing the appointment of a commission to audit and pass upon all American claims against England for damages sustained by violation or evasion of the neutrality laws during the late civil war. The United States will then assume those claims and present them in a single item in the account against Great Britain with a demand for immediate restitution. In case of refusal ulterior measures will be adopted, which it is believed will be backed by the entire American people. This course is calculated to obviate the almost interminable delays which usually attend the settlement of claims against foreign governments.

The New Hampshire Patriot says this tends to explain the new phase of this Alabama claims question. It is simply designed to back up a huge swindle. The talk about making England pay two billion five hundred million on this account is too absurd to deceive any people on earth except the "free, independent and intelligent people" of this great and happy country; experience shows that they can be made to believe anything, even that a negro is superior to a white man. Yet our people will consent to be thus fooled; they will be made to believe that England will be so frightened at Sumner's thunder that she will hasten to send over the gold soon as it is formally demanded. In this belief they will very readily concur in the little preliminary arrangements and formalities referred to, such as auditing, assuming and paying the claims!

OBSERVE, GENTLEMEN.—Several Republican papers copy our local items and credit to the Yolo News. There is no such paper in existence. Do not be afraid of the word Democrat, gentlemen. It seems to inspire you with terror. Besides, when you send in exchange to the News, we rarely get them.

The Democratic Test.

Our friend, Bob Steele, of the Merced Herald, objects to the test established by the State Central Committee, which requires of voters opposition to the Radical measures of Congress, including the fifteenth amendment—opposition to the appointment of negroes to office, and a pledge to support the Democratic ticket. There is no better Democrat than Bob Steele, but we had supposed that a man who had swallowed McClellan, and afterwards Montgomery Blair, could swallow anything, even a scaly, horned frog, tail foremost. We fail to discover any objection to the test of the Committee. Opposition "to the Radical measures of Congress" includes cessation of the warfare waged against the rights of the States, and when these are respected all else will be right. But there is one thing the Democracy will have to do when the time arrives for constructing platforms, or, failing in which, renounce all pretensions to Democracy. They must repudiate the oligarchical idea of the supremacy of the Federal Government over the States, and get back to the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions. They contain all there ever was or ever can be of Democracy—their interpretation of the Constitution is the only one it will bear—and a re-endorsement of them is just as necessary to the continued existence of the party as the sun is necessary to the existence of animal and vegetable life. The opposite theory, that the Federal Government is supreme over the States that made it, and that there is no escapement from its oppressions when controlled by wicked men, is the fundamental article in the creed of our opponents. We have been assisting them to educate the public mind in this monstrous belief long enough. It must be stopped. We must dare to be men, and speak out what we know to be truth, and was the cherished doctrines of our party all the way from 1800 to 1860, or exchange the pataloon for the petticoat—miserable "policy" for simple honesty—or go to the devil, as we will deserve. This is our individual opinion. We do not speak for the rank and file of the party.

TEMPERANCE AND POLITICS.—The Good Templars in Chico, Butte county, have made a move which is destined to have an important influence on the fortunes of political parties in this State. They have solemnly resolved never to support a man for office who drinks in any degree whatever. They number in the county near three hundred voters, and hold the balance of power beyond all question. We know the men—know them to be men of character and talents, Democrats and Republicans, know they will adhere to their resolve—and they are as much bound to elect the men they vote for as the election takes place. They have appealed to their brethren throughout the State to co-operate with them, and the appeal, we learn, has been generally responded to, therefore, in all counties where the vote is close, candidates may make up their minds to quit drinking or be beaten. The following extract from a communication in the Chico paper, signed "Good Templar," sets forth the objects of the movement:

"What we understand the movement to be is not in favor of the establishment of a separate party, except as a last resort; but we do hold and pledge ourselves willing at all times to vote for Temperance men, whether they belong to our society or not, without reference to party, and by this means we expect to gain recognition from both political organizations. The time is not far distant when, if political parties cannot conform their platforms to the wishes of the people, the people will apply a platform to the politicians. We are convinced that sober men are better judges of the qualifications necessary in public officers, than drinking men, and every day makes our convictions deeper on this subject. The enormity of the crime of drunkenness is opening the eyes of all men, who are saying, "we must protect ourselves and our institutions," and the present movement is simply an organized condition of the great temperance reform for this object, and that is—temperance men are going to vote for temperance men at all elections."

OUR MODEL GOVERNMENT.—We see it stated in the telegraphic dispatches that the Federal commander of the military in Mississippi has issued an order annulling the tax law passed by the Legislature of that State, and directing a different assessment. Good people, how does this sound to your ears? Can you persuade yourselves that you are living in a republican government? A military General, in a time of profound peace, annuls a State tax law, passed by its representatives, and ordering taxes to be levied on its people to suit himself! And men, calling themselves Americans, manifest no concern thereat! In a few weeks they will go and hear the Declaration of Independence read, and pretend a hypocritical devotion to the sentiments it expresses, while they support a party which exercises a despotism over ten millions of their own white people ten times more galling than that our revolutionary fathers, who adopted this Declaration, took up arms and shook off! Link this despotic act with the refusal, at the points of bayonets, to let fathers, mothers and sisters strew flowers over the graves of their sons and brothers, and then let Republicans answer if ours is not a model government, and damnable as it is model. The man who would sing paens to the Union that holds these States together, would lip a wanton, blistered prostitute and call her chaste.

JOHN BOGGS, OF COLUSA.—It is the intention of the Democracy of Colusa and Tehama counties to elect John Boggs assemblyman. Mr. Boggs is a polished, thorough-bred gentleman, a man of sense, of information, of Jeffersonian principles, and will confer dignity upon the body of which he will be elected a member. In saying this much we do not speak disparagingly of Will. S. Green, who served in the Legislature with honor to himself and his constituents.

The Crops.

Since our last notice of the crops they have changed wonderfully, in consequence of the glorious rain with which we have been favored. Hundreds of acres that would not have been cut are now thriving well. The weather still keeps cool, with an occasional southern breeze, which has the effect in nearly all parts of our county, of leaving, in its northward flight, the blessed morning dew, gladdening the hearts of all who cultivate the soil for subsistence.

We have seen all the grain fields of which mention was made three weeks ago, and, had we not seen them, no one could have convinced us of the truly wonderful change made in the appearance of those fields in consequence of a few days gentle rain. Nearly every acre sowed prior to the middle of March will now be harvested, while all sowed before the middle of February will yield well. Much of the grain on fallow land will now grow so rank as to lodge; in truth many fields have already large patches of fallen grain. Among those, we might mention those splendid fields of John Kelly and Ben Dennis, near Woodland, and John Price, J. S. Tutt and J. W. McFadgen, on Cottonwood. Those fields will yield at least forty bushels to the acre. The growth is now above five feet high, and apparently as thick as it can stand. Those fields, and hundreds like them, are standing, positive proofs, admonishing farmers to fallow more land.

It would astonish the farmers on the rich sandy land about Woodland and Cacheville, to see those vast acres comprising "Hungry Hollow," situate north of Cache Creek, and bounded on the west by the foothills of the Coast Range. But three years since we rode over that section, looking for lost stock, but soon gave up the task lest our horse should disappear in some of the large cracks or openings in the adobe soil. Even then it was a vast uninhabited plain, some ten miles square, considered worthless by almost everybody, but now, what a change! Nearly every acre has a fine growing crop, or is fallowed for another year. Certainly the people living in the "Hollow" never need be hungry if they will but labor moderately. A portion of the crops of R. R. Darby, H. H. Hungate, John Goodenow, John Nixon, and the Duncan Bros., will yield from thirty-five to forty bushels to the acre. To see the field of four hundred acres of this kind of wheat, belonging to the Duncan Bros., bowing its countless heads to the sun that gives it life, is a sight as pleasing to the eye of the stranger as it is gratifying to the heart of the producer.

It is generally conceded that the late rain will add at least one-third to our crops, and half a million to our coffers. All that is required now is to be ready by the first of July with plenty of machinery to cut the wheat as fast as it ripens. Perhaps some volunteer will mature before that time, so all should be ready, with plenty of headers to prevent those blighting northern harvesters, yclept winds, which appear to be periodical this season, from having their usual effect. w.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

County Official Paper.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

COUNTY PRINTING.—As so much has been said about the county printing by the editor of the Yolo Mail, we went to the record for the facts, and here present them for the information of the people. Under a Republican Board of Supervisors, S. W. Raveley, the publisher of the Republican paper, was paid $1,200 per annum for doing the county printing, which did not include the delinquent list, but for publishing which he was paid extra, one year costing the county $1,000 additional. Later, another Republican Board gave the printing to the publishers of the Woodland News at $1,100 per annum, which contract included nothing but what was advertised in said paper; all posters—election proclamations, etc.—being extra work. When a Democratic Board was elected they employed the DEMOCRAT to do the same printing for $900 in county scrip, worth from eighty to ninety cents on the dollar. This contract includes the delinquent list—the county receiving $2 per square for the work, we nothing. The reader can now compare these facts and see whether the Republican or Democratic Supervisors have been most sparing of the money of the people in providing for the necessary printing of the county. But the editor of the Mail, not content to see us the recipients of the patronage of the Democratic county officials, proposes to do the work for $200 per annum, which would not defray the expense of the work. He hopes, however, to make up the deficit by extra charges for the extra printing, which, at the rate of charges made by Raveley, would run the amount up to a figure largely over what we are now receiving. The price we are now paid is not a fair compensation for the labor performed. It is much less than ever has been paid by the county, and much less than is paid by adjoining counties for the same work. The Mail proposes to do the work for $200 so long as the Board is constituted as at present, which would seem to imply that as soon as a Republican Board could be elected, it would demand a higher price. As proof that the Mail was not serious in making its $200 bid, we call attention to its unstinted abuse of the Board. A party seeking a favor never abuses those who are to grant it. As to the bonds for the performance of the work, everybody knows it would cost the county more to recover than is paid for the printing. We wish the reader to note particularly these facts, that we are now doing the county printing for $500 less than it ever was done for before, and the extra printing we have done has not amounted, in the last eighteen months, to $25; while one bill for extra work, under Republican rule, amounted to $1,000. Having made this exposure of facts, we drop the subject for all future time.

MEETING OF THE COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—In another column will be seen the proceedings of the County Central Committee. The primaries are ordered to be held at the various precincts throughout the county on Saturday, 19th instant, and the delegates elected are requested to assemble in convention, at Woodland, on Saturday, 29th inst. We repeat what we said in last week's DEMOCRAT, that we hope the most reliable men will be selected as delegates, and they be instructed as to the wishes of those they represent regarding the Crawford County Plan for the future, and also Supreme Judges. After being assembled in Convention they doubtless will bear in mind that the Democracy of Yolo are in no condition to "pack dead weights," and that for all offices the strongest men should be presented. We are pleased to know that all of the gentlemen spoken of for Sheriff will prove acceptable to the people, and poll the full strength of the party—for other offices we are not posted as to the aspirants. We have our own preferences, but those preferences must succumb to the success of the party. The DEMOCRAT is the organ of the whole party in this county, and cannot exhibit favoritism for any one. In the present crisis of affairs, when the destructive Radicals are endeavoring to rob the people of rights which they have exercised ever since the formation of the government, and to force negroes, Chinamen and Indians into social and political equality with white men, every man who has a drop of manly blood in his veins must be prepared, without a murmur, to sacrifice his personal preferences to defeat such unmitigated scoundrels. Now, Democrats, is the time to secure the nomination of the men you prefer; but should you not succeed, let not a word of complaint escape your lips.

BENEVOLENCE.—On Friday evening of last week the ladies of this town held an impromptu festival for the benefit of the Good Templars' Orphans' Home, to be located at Vallejo. The whole affair being gotten up in a hurry, but little time was allowed for preparation; but never before did we witness more zeal and liberality displayed in so good a cause. The hearts and purses of all seemed open to the "houseless child of want," and the givers seemed happy in proportion as they gave. The large and commodious hall of the Good Templars was literally jammed with about equal proportions of males and females, and happiness seemed enthroned in the countenances of all. Let the truth no longer be doubted that happiness springs alone from the consciousness of good performed. What we witnessed on this occasion gave us decidedly a better opinion of poor human nature than we previously entertained. The result was the realization of a large sum for the Orphans' Home. It would be impossible to make personal mention of all the ladies who participated in this good work, but of those most prominent and who officiated at the tables were Mrs. Plomteaux, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Garoutte and Mrs. Keeler. God bless the women! —the world would not have been half made without them.

LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION.—The happy couple who were "consolidated" by Elder Pendegast, on Wednesday evening last, made us the recipient of a huge cake and two bottles of champagne. The cake is acceptable and useful, but what we are to do with the wine perplexes us. The personnel of this office are all Good Templars, and their pledge requires them neither to "make, buy, sell, nor use as a beverage," etc. We cannot drink it, we cannot give it away, and to destroy it would be manifesting disrespect for the kind donors. Will not some wine-bibber relieve us from our perplexity by stealing it? O, Bro. Smith, of the Appeal!—the latch-string of our office is on the outside, and the wine is at the left of the door as you enter!

OBLIGING.—Tucker & Co.'s contract only requires them to carry the mail tri-weekly; notwithstanding, they have for several months past, for the accommodation of the public, been carrying it daily between this place and Sacramento. An accident caused the non-arrival of the mail on Tuesday at the usual hour. Tucker immediately telegraphed to Sacramento and the mail bags arrived on the evening stage.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday at noon, as the stage of Messrs. Tucker & Co. was about starting for Davisville, the driver, John Kennedy, a pioneer stageman, was thrown from his seat and the wheels of the heavy Concord coach passed over his face and head, lacerating and crushing both in a dreadful manner. He now lies at the Planters' House in a very critical condition.

BLOODY DAVISVILLE.—This embryo town is getting its name and its fame into the papers. In less than two weeks' time there was three separate cutting and shooting affairs. One negro cut a white man; one white man shot a negro; and one white man badly bruised another white man, and in return himself was badly cut. Bloody Davisville!

SADDLES AND HARNESS.—See the advertisement of Thomas Prior, saddle and harness maker. He is a splendid workman and liberal in all his dealings.

OPPOSITION STAGE LINE.—Vanarnam's stages are now making daily trips through to Sacramento, instead of Davisville, as heretofore.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to M. Lasky, the very clever agent of the Reporter, for courtesies extended to this office.

Woodland Spring Races.

Three days of this week—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—were devoted to the popular amusement of racing. A goodly number of people from other counties were present, and our streets presented quite an animated appearance. Our friend, Ned Boyle, prepared us a full report, in genuine "horse talk" style, but we have not the space or the time to give it.

FIRST DAY.

Three horses were entered in the trotting-race, mile heats, best three in five, for a purse of $50. Won by Tom Fenno's black horse, "Ben." Time—3:15—3:19.

SECOND DAY.

Mile heats, best three in five, for a purse of $50. Three entries; won by Edson's sorrel mare "Flying Gib." Time—3:14 2:5—3:10—3:6 2:5—3:14 2:5.

THIRD DAY.

Match race between Fenno's black horse and Dresbach's horse Aleck, for a purse of $100, mile heats, two best in three. Won by Aleck. Time 3:15½ 3:3.

Second Race.—Trotting and pacing race, free for all. Won by Tom Glasscock's g. g. Tempest. Time, 3:2 3:7 3:10.

Third Race.—Single dash of a mile. Won by Frank Slocum's s. h. Jeff Davis. Time, 1:53.

Fourth Race.—Match race, mile heats, between Dresbach's b. h. Aleck and Fenno's bl'k horse Ben, for purse of $100. Won by Aleck. Time 3:15 3:3.

BANK EXCHANGE.—Mr. Hafky has opened a first class Saloon in the new brick building adjoining Fleishman & Kaufman's Store. The bar will be kept by the well known popular man, Capt. Cooke, who will be glad to see all his friends and acquaintances, and deal out to them a cool and refreshing drink. The bar will be stocked always with the best wines, liquors and cigars. All are invited to take a free lunch on Saturday (this) evening. Liquors for medical use. *

"THE BEST GOVERNMENT."—The telegraph informs us that in many places in the Southern States, during this season of flowers, the relatives and friends of Confederates who fell in battle have been prevented from bedecking their graves with flowers by the soldiers and marines of the United States, stationed on guard around the cemeteries for that purpose. If any thing were needed to sink the U. S. Government to the lowest depths of meanness and wickedness, this proceeding on its part has done it. All civilized Christian people, let their animosities die with the objects of it. Not so with this falsely termed "best government." Grant said "let us have peace," but he is pursuing the course, above all others, calculated to perpetuate hatred in Southern bosoms. Eight hundred years after the Romans conquered the Carthagenians, they retaliated the injury and become the most terrible scourge the Romans ever had. If it be true that history repeats itself, woe to Federal oppressors!

CHINESE SAVINGS' BANK.—A movement is said to be on foot to establish a Savings and Loan institution for the Chinese in this city. It is claimed that these people have at least $10,000,000 stowed away, most of which can be put in circulation and made useful if such an institution can be established as will command their confidence.—S. F. Dispatch.

SCHOOL FOR CHINESE GIRLS.—At a meeting held at the residence of Judge Sawyer, recently, by the ladies of the various Protestant churches in San Fran. it was resolved to employ a teacher for little Chinese girls. Mrs. Cole, a former missionary in China, has been engaged to take charge of the school.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ON SEA AND LAND THE GREAT RESTORATIVE. As a remedy for the sea-sickness which besets the voyager on his way to and from California, and for the disorders which assail the unacclimated emigrant in the unhealthy districts of the interior, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will be found equally efficacious. On no part of the continent has the value of this pure vegetable elixir, as a specific for epidemic diseases, been so clearly demonstrated, as in the new States and Territories lying contiguous to the Pacific Ocean. As a means of preventing the distressing and dangerous attacks of fever, and the dysentiric and diarrhœal complaints which are engendered by poison in the air, or by the use of water containing a mineral or vegetable taint inimical to health, it is confessedly superior to any other tonic and alterative in the world. It acts as a preventive agent by strengthening and exhilarating the whole physical organization, and producing a regular habit of body. All that the human system requires to enable it to resist the deleterious effects of malaria, is increased vigor and vital activity, and these are the inevitable results of a course of this celebrated tonic and corrective. It promotes appetite, facilitates digestion, controls the liver, regulates the bowels, braces the nerves, superinduces sound and wholesome sleep, invigorates without exciting the pulse, and imparts buoyancy to the animal spirits. The body and mind toned and cheered by its genial operation, are in a condition to repel all exterior influences which tend to produce disease. Flux, dysentery, bilious remittents, chills, and fever, rheumatism, etc., are almost always caused by atmospheric poison acting upon an unfortified system. Brace up the organism, and cheer the spirits, with this wholesome medicated stimulant, and then neither the malaria generated by the filth of crowded cities, nor the exhalation of new soils, nor the vapid water of a springless region, will be likely to produce any serious consequences. je5-1m

WHAT AN INDIAN SAID OF PLANTATION BITTERS.—A little before the commencement of the buffalo season on the plains this year, two Kiowa chiefs came to Fort Hays, to obtain powder and ball. As they belonged to the "peace party" of the tribe their wish was complied with. One of them expressed a desire for "two, tree, five bottles berry good medicine," but could not remember the name of the article he wanted. It was finally recollected that the winter previously a couple of bottles of Drake's Plantation Bitters had been given to one of the chiefs by an officer of the Fort, and it appeared that the red-skin was cager for more. On asking him what he thought of the cordial he promptly replied that it was "berry bad stuff for Injun to take when no meat in wigwam—it made him so hungry—but berry good when buffalo plenty, 'cause it gave him big appetite, and he eat, eat, eat, till he get fat an' strong." Probably a finer compliment was never paid to the famous vegetable tonic and restorrtive than this bit of bad English from an unsophisticated Indian. It not only cures indisestion, but imparts, so to speak, a clamorous appetite.

PAIN KILLER.—We beg leave to call the attention of the public to this long celebrated and unrivalled Family Medicine. The Pain Killer is a purely vegetable compound, and while it is a most efficient remedy for Pain, it is perfectly safe medicine even in the most unskillful hands. For summer complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt been more successful in curing the various kinds of Cholera, than any other known remedy, or even the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is ever more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy.

PAIN KILLER, the great family medicine of the age, taken internally, cures Dysentery, Cholera, Diarrhœa, Cramp, and Pain in the Stomach, Bowel Complaints, Painters' Colic, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds, Coughs, &c., &c. Used externally, it cures Boils, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Old Sores, Sprains, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Frosted Feet, &c., &c., &c. a3-1m.

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

The Pilgrim Fathers.

BY REV. JOHN M. HANSON.

To Plymouth's far-famed rock
The Pilgrim Fathers came,
And brought with them to western climes
The fagot and the flame.

They did not cross the wave
With ties of country riven,
By persecution's torrent power
Or dark misfortune driven.

No! let the truth be told,
They wanted furs and fish,
And royal James's "Patent" gave
To grant them all their wish.

Reverse the silly tale
Our children have been taught;
Not liberty, but power and gold,
Was all the Roundheads sought.

They knew not Freedom's sacred law,
Or knowing, did despise,
To give to ALL the rights that WE Ourselves most dearly prize.

New England annals tell,
And Quakers whipped and burned,
Show that, if tyranny they felt,
They tyranny return'd.

Call it not holy ground,
The spot where first they trod,
They did not leave what there they found—
Freedom to worship God.

And history's iron pen
Shall grave a stern record,
And hand them down to future days,
By all free minds abhorr'd.

AN OUTRAGEOUS INSULT TO OUR COLORED SOLDIERS.—We are informed that "the Indians of the plains will not take scalps from the heads of negro soldiers killed in battle."

Is not this a flagrant violation of the spirit of the civil rights bill, of the new amendment to the Constitution, and of the reconstruction policy of Congress?

This is the crowning insult to our colored citizens.

Shall the red-skins be allowed thus to make distinctions on account of race and color?

When the colored troops fight bravely, may those untaxed Indians scorn their scalps as being no trophy worth the taking off?

This contemptuous treatment of the black man by the red man is not to be borne.

Senator Sumner must attend to this.

He must fulminate speeches against the noble red man of the forest, who, when on the war-path dares to show a savage disrespect to wool!

He has abolished the word "'white" in the District of Columbia, let him abolish the word "black" on the plains.

Let him cause it to be enacted that when the untaxed red skin says: "Ugh, big Injun no scalp nigger!"—somebody shall shoot him on the spot.

It is not because of the difficulty of taking off the colored man's scalp.

No such thing.

Indians scalp very short-haired white soldiers.

It is their contempt for the negro as an inferior race.

They must be taught better.

Here is missionary work to do.

And a new stipulation should be made in all Indian treaties, that no distinction of race or color shall be made with the scalping-knife.

The insult is too cutting.

DEATH OF A NOTED MAN.—Robert H. Randolph, who was dismissed from the navy by General Jackson, and who pulled the General's nose in consequence, while on a steamer at Alexandria, (believing he had been unjustly dismissed,) died in Washington city lately at the age of seventy-eight years. Randolph escaped arrest at the time by getting beyong the jurisdiction of the county police before a process could be issued. The affair created quite a tempest, the triumphant Jackson party feeling that its own nose had been twisted by this audacious descendant of Pocahontas. General Van Ness, then Mayor of Washington, sent a message to the councils on the event, and the boards responded in a resolution of condolence and indignation.

Randolph was a fugitive for a couple of years. The act maimed his prospects, and he lived and died in poverty. He was a cousin to John Randolph, and leaves a wife and three daughters and one son. Floyd gave him the superintendence of the Washington Arsnory, when he was Secretary of War, but Buchanan ordered his dismissal. Randolph was a lieutenant in the navy when dismissed, and had done good service under Decatur. He was said to be a high-spirited, intrepid man.

IN one of our large cities, a short time ago, a Western editor was met by a friend, who taking him by the hand exclaimed: "I am delighted to see you. How long are you going to stay?" "Why, I think," said the editor, "I shall stay while my money lasts." "How disappointed I am," said his friend, "I hoped you were going to stay a day or two."

A NEW ORLEANS JURY declared a man to have come to his death by "an unknown cart." About on a par with this is the Philadelphia verdict, respecting a man who had been crushed to death in a mill, when the jury remarked, "No blame can be attached to the machinery."

THERE is a rooster in Augusta, Ga., which shelters a large brood of young chickens under his wings. A local paper says: "It has been several times endeavoring to lay an egg; and those who know this strange fowl best, seem to think it will ultimately succeed."

SPEAKING of last words, that was a strikingly appropriate remark of a California stage-driver who on his death-bed was visited by a brother "whip." Said he: "Bill, I'm on the down grade, and can't reach the brake."

QUIN, being asked by a lady why there were more women in the world than men, replied: "It is in conformity with the other arrangements of Nature, madam; we always see more of heaven than earth."

AN Irishman called in great haste upon the doctor, saying: "Be jabers, my boy Tim has swallowed a mouse!" "Then, be jabers," said the doctor, "tell your boy Tim to swallow a cat."

A LINE in one of Moore's songs reads thus: "Our couch shall be roses bespangled with dew." To which a sensible girl replied: "It would give me the rheumatiz, and so it would you."

THE Louisville Journal says: "We wish that Grant could be persuaded to think the country is some relative of his. He might then feel inclined to do something for it."

AFTER a long period of wet weather when they have prayed vainly for relief, the Chinese put their gods out in the rain to see how they like it.

LUMBER WAGONS,

—FROM THE—

Selected by myself!

All work manufactured at my shop is under my own immediate supervision, and up to the requirements of the times, of the latest style, and the most

APPROVED PATTERNS AND FINISH!

I employ no "foreman," for 30 years' experience in the trade—10 years in the Eastern States, 20 years on the Pacific coast, (including 9 years superintendence of the "Pioneer Carriage Shop," Sacramento,) justifies me in assuming that position. Delegating to none the supervision of my work, I am enabled to Guarantee Satisfaction!

My LARGE and SPACIOUS SHOPS enable me to store large quantities of material, and my

SEASONING FACILITIES,

(the only perfect seasoning apparatus on the coast) enable me to defy competition in quality of seasoned work. For verification of above, one has only to examine my facilities in this line, and compare them with those in other shops. I do not pursue the course adopted by many; on the contrary, I season stock before working, and do not put up green stock in wheels, leaving them to season afterwards. I have and keep on hand a large stock of

OAK and HICKORY SPOKES,

of all sizes and the finest material the market affords. Also a large variety of Elm and Locust Hubs.

Having given the Oak Hub a fair trial, I have become convinced that they are unfit for first-class work. Parties who may favor me with their patronage may be assured that

No green oak hubs will be found in my work!

In this connection I would call particular attention to my NEW STYLE LOCUST HUB, turned from my pattern, and imported expressly for this trade and Found only at my Shop!

Also made to order all kinds of

FARMING IMPLEMENTS!

Plows,
Harrows, &c

I have now on hand Harrows of all sizes, with STEEL TEETH, superior to the imported article. In short, I am prepared to fill all orders, from a Wheelbarrow to a Hornet's Nest.

The PAINTING and TRIMMING DEPARTMENT is equal to the best, and particular attention is paid to repairing and trimming old work.

BLACKSMITHING,

In all its branches, is connected with the wood-work, and both are under my supervision.

I have on hand, for sale,
Plow-beams and Handles,
Neckyokes,
Singletrees,
Stretchers,
Clevises,
Fifth-chains,
Lap-Rings,
Harrow-Teeth,
Etc., Etc.

All kinds of Plow and Wagon repairing done with neatness and dispatch. Determined to adhere to my long-established rule of manufacturing only the Best Work from the Best Stock, and having served my time at the two branches of carriage-work, (wood and iron) enables me to guarantee satisfaction in all cases, and to know, as foreman of my own shop, when work is WELL DONE.

To those who have heretofore dealt at other shops, and consequently are unacquainted with my work, I would say GIVE ME A CALL and examine my stock and work. Believing that the surest test of the value of my work can be had in the verdict of those who use it, I respectfully refer the public to

The following named Gentlemen

who have and now are using Wagons and Buggies of my manufacture: E. Giddings, J. Laugenour, J. Aldrich, Mr. High, H. Rhoades, Mr. Taylor, J. Jones, L. B. Ruggles, Gray & Freeman, J. Garoutte, Fleishman & Kaufman, Ed. Moses, S. & M. Hyman, George Scott, Mr. Ludden, Mr. Olds, Mr. Lusk, Mr. Hurlbut, R. Fritz, J. Lane, Wm. Davidson, and a host of others whose names can be given if required

☞ Thankful for past patronage, I respectfully solicit a continuance of the favor.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

The only Known Remedy

—FOR—

Diabetes, Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder, Inflamation of the Kidneys, Catarrh of the Bladder, &c., &c., &c.

For these diseases, it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. Are you troubled with that disgusting pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

Physicians and Others

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with care, prepared in vacuo and according to the rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded. A Diuretic is that which acts upon the Kidneys. Helmbold's Extract Buchu acts gently. It is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action. For the satisfaction of all, see Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Uretha, diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, chronic Rheumatism, cutaneous affections and Dropsy."

For further information see Professor Dewees valuable works on the Practice of Physic. See remarks made by the celebrated Dr. Physic, of Philadelphia. See any and all standard works on Medicine.

Dr. Keyser is a physician of over thirty years experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical college and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia:

Mr. H. T. HELMBOLD—Dear Sir: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys; and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts. I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves, the simple decoction, tincture fluid extracts; and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality I give yours precedence over all others. I value your Buchu for its effects on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu, or any other proprietory compound of whatever name. Respectfully yours, etc.,

GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D., 140 Wood st.
Pittsburg, Pa., August 11, 1865.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

FROM THE LARGEST MANUFACTURING CHEMIST

IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupies the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise. WM. WEIGHTMAN, (firm of Powers & Weightman), Manufacturing chemists, Ninth and Brown streets, Phila.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are genuine preparations, and knowing that the intelligent refrain from using anything pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physicians' simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare Pharmaceutical preparations. These parties resort to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies and finishing with certificates. The science of medicine stands simple, pure and majestic, having fact for its basis, induction for its pillar, truth alone for its capital.

A Word of Caution.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine, or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.
